RINKLE-LESS-LINEN (Non-Shrinkable)

RINKLE-LESS expresses the fruit of years of ambition and effort to produce a finish on Linen used for dress purposes, that will not crush and wrinkle as the ordinary linen will do. Every lady who uses linen for costumes, etc., realizes the importance of such an advantage in finishing. This linen is treated by a new and secret process, which practically accomplishes above results. This treatment also thoroughly "shrinks" the fabric, so that it is the only linen that should be used for ladies' wear. In this department you will find a full range of colors and weights of famous 46-inch, French colored Ramie dress linens. Don't fail to examine them.
